

Kansas State Board of Indigents' Defense Services

Open Position – Call for Applicants

Special Investigator Position 29th Judicial District Public Defender Office (Wyandotte County) Kansas City, KS

Special Investigator Position:

The Kansas State Board of Indigents' Defense Services is accepting applications for the position of Special Investigator in the 29th Judicial District Public Defender Office in Kansas City, Kansas.

The Mission

The Board of Indigents' Defense Services (BIDS), through its regional public defender offices like the 29th Judicial District Public Defender Office, represents adults charged with felonies who cannot hire an attorney. By supporting and elevating public defense in the State of Kansas, BIDS empowers its team to provide relentless representation and collaborative, holistic advocacy in service of client-centered outcomes.

The Kansas State Board of Indigents' Defense Services is in the process of remaking its public defense model with a renewed emphasis on building public defense offices with an interdisciplinary team-based collaborative defense system that uses community connections and resources to better represent not just an individual's case, but the client as a whole.

The office of the 29th Judicial District Public Defender is entirely new in Wyandotte County. We are looking for dynamic, client-centered Investigative Specialists who are passionate about the importance of public defense and are interested in aiding our efforts to fundamentally rebuild our system and transform the new public defender office in the 29th Judicial District into a model of collaborative public defense practice.
